

Authorisation to operate an account when an account holder aged 15–18 has opened the account themselves

The form will be returned if one or more of the following applies:

- The account signatory is not a DNB/Sbanken customer. The account signatory can easily become a customer on DNB.no or in the Sbanken app.
- The form has not been signed by the account holder or the account signatory. Remember that the account holder must sign for each account that the signatory is to be authorised to operate.
- The account signatories listed are not guardians.
- Documentation of who the guardians are according to the Norwegian National Population Register is not enclosed.

All fields must be filled in, except for the fields marked 'optional'.

It will take 1–2 weeks before the signatory is registered as having the right to operate the account(s).

Checklist

- ☐ Yes, the account holder has opened the account themselves.
- ☐ Yes, the account signatories are customers of DNB/Sbanken and have signed the form.
- ☐ Yes, the form has been signed by the account holder for all account numbers that are to be operated by the signatory.
- ☐ A copy of the birth certificate with information about the parents, registered parental responsibility or registration of the choice of name is enclosed.
- ☐ We confirm that the mobile phone number given for the child is for a phone used by the child.

The right to operate the account includes the following:

- Right to charge the account for individual payment orders.
- Right to access the account and see any transactions made to or from it.
- The account signatories are authorised to operate my account(s) using their own access to the online bank, mobile banking app and similar online payment services. The account signatory must use their own BankID.

This means, among other things:

- The amount limit for the right to operate the account follows the applicable amount limit for the online bank, mobile banking app, etc. of the account signatories.
- The account signatories will be able to enter into an AvtaleGiro agreement on behalf of the account holder.

Specific conditions for the right to operate the account(s):

For the right to operate the account(s), part B of the account agreement applies: General terms and conditions for deposits and payment services.

Moreover, the following applies:

- The account signatories cannot give others the right to operate the account(s) (pass on the right to operate the account(s)).
- Guardians cannot register a third person as an account signatory. The authorisation must either be signed by the person who has a guardian, or a confirmation from the County Governor must be submitted, stating that the specified person can be registered as an account signatory.
- The account signatories do not have the right to terminate the account(s).
- The right to operate the account(s) is not limited in terms of amount.
- The account signatories will be able to use services provided by other payment service providers if they can be linked to the account.
- The account holder will be held responsible for any overdrafts that result from the account signatories' operation of the account(s).
- The right to operate the account(s) is valid until it is revoked. The bank must be notified of any revocation of this kind, normally in writing. The bank is not responsible for any transactions made by the account signatories before the bank was made aware of the decision to revoke the authorisation.
- In the event of the account holder's death, the right to operate the account(s) ceases. The bank is not responsible for any transactions carried out by the account signatories before the bank was made aware of the account holder's death.

The Norwegian Personal Data Act requires that this form be returned by post to DNB Bank ASA, PO Box 1600 Sentrum, 0021 Oslo
